Message from your Engagement Officer

Helping to police your own community is one of the country's oldest traditions. For over 175 years, Specials have taken on Constabulary powers to work alongside and support Regular Officers. There are currently 13 active Special Constables across North Norfolk. These officers are required to perform a minimum of 16 hours per month. They will be involved in foot patrol, crime reduction initiatives, schools liaison, policing events, public order policing, road traffic collisions and conflict resolution. In order to join the Specials you are required to be 18 years or over, numerate and literate, have a positive and friendly approach as well as a willingness to work as part of a team. Prospective applicants will receive training in police duties, powers of arrest, common crimes, statement taking, personal safety training and the use of baton, PAVA and rigid handcuffs. If you are interested in finding out more please email PC Pete Davison at davisonp@norfolk.pnn.police.uk, visit www.norfolk.police.uk or come along to our information event (details below).
